Hello one and all

We've had another packed week at The Stables. The children have been learning all about prominent figures in history to celebrate Black History Month. There's been some healthy eating work happening in Hedgehogs, while Badgers have been out to Bacton Woods, picking up litter. It's so important to look after our community. One of our pupils found a mobile phone while they were in the woods, which we were able to reunite with its very relieved and grateful owner. Well done!

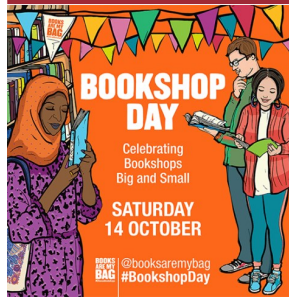

Have a great weekend! Mrs Porter, Headteacher

Open morning!

On the morning of 20th October, we'd love to welcome you into school for a Topic Showcase!

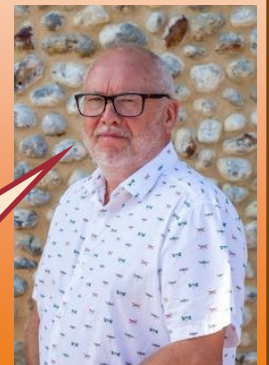

Come and see what the children have been doing this term between 9am and 10am in the Barn.

Why not pop along to a local bookshop near you on Saturday. We love reading! What do you like to read? Adventure or mystery? Fact or fiction? Comics or story books? Newspapers or biographies?

Meet the Team

I am an Education Consultant at the school. I am a keen wildlife photographer. My favourite colour is sunset orange. I enjoy travelling and have been to five out of the world's seven continents (so far)! I have had lots of different pets, including a corn snake, a tarantula and a rat! I like paddleboarding and keep practicing to get better at it!

Hi, I'm Mr Endall. Lots of staff and pupils call me Mr E or Grandad!

Black History Month

Who are these icons of politics and sport?

TOP: Marcus Rashford, Man Utd and England striker.
